

I believe, that in this free enterprise system, satellite radio providers should be able to offer service their paying customers want, such as commercial free radio, instant weather, and traffic reports. They should not be restricted in offering these services by commercial radio stations petitioning the FCC/Government to legislate changes in the way they do business or provide services.